Charles Haddon Spurgeon

By his wife and private secretary

At odd moments during a busy life the lamented Spurgeon prepared chapter after chapter of his own autobiography; thus the work comes to us the product of hand and heart—not a mere record of a life, but an interpretation of the motives and influences that guided this great man.

The work is of peculiar importance to the ministry. Every incident in the life is made to form the basis of teaching some lesson of pertinent application, warning, or exhortation.

REPORT ON PRAYER MEETING.

To the Liberty Baptist Association in session at Mount Pisgah, Limestone County, Alabama:

Our prayer meeting service is just what we make it, and will that it shall be. It is one of the sweetest and most important services that we engage in. It is a school in which christian workers train themselves, who expect to make life-long workers in the Master's vineyard. A leader of a prayer-meeting should prepare himself, and possess wisdom, skill and tact.

The pastor should appoint one of the brethren as often as possible to lead the meeting, he, however, being present to assist in the same.

Long passages of scripture, long talks, long songs and long prayers should be avoided.

Should a brother make the same talk or offer the same prayer every time, he should be counseled.

The exercises should be varied—sometimes announce at one meeting the passage to be considered at the next meeting, and let the members prepare to talk or listen intelligently. Never allow the meeting to drag.

Prayer is not a weak part of the gospel system. It can not only, by inherent force, hold its own position against all assaults, but it can furnish efficient support to other parts of the system of divine truth. If we had no written revelation on the subject of prayer, its necessity and duty could find satisfaction in man's constitution and condition, and in the relations he sustains to the God of nature and providence.

Gratitude for benefits conferred is a feeling nature has imparted in the human breast. Show man the danger he is exposed to, the wants which press him and the blessings that he needs, and let him feel that God alone can protect and bless him, and nothing is more natural than the language of petition. How often is it verified by the fact that wicked men, and even professed infidels and atheists, call upon God for help when suddenly pressed by danger or distress.

God pledges himself to co-operate with us who pray in faith and gives us the holy spirit to teach us to pray.

When we approach the throne of grace we must do so with humility, and yet in the strength of Christ, with boldness; forgiving if we have aught against any: in faith believing that God is, and that he is a rewarder of all who diligently seek him.

In ancient times prayer service was an important part of the worship of God. The temple was called "a house of prayer for all people."

We are commanded in the word of God to pray without ceasing and in all things give thanks. Solomon prayed for wisdom and understanding. Abraham prayed for Ambimeleck to be restored to health. Paul prayed for the father of Publius, and he was healed.

The Bible prescribes private, family and public prayer. For example:

Isaiah 56:7—I will make the people joyful in my house of prayer. I will accept their sacrifices on my altar, for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all people.

Acts 12:5—Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

Acts 12:12—Peter came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.

By R. E. Pettus—that we convene at 9:30 a.m., an intermission of one and half hours at noon and adjourn at will.

By motion adjourned.

Dr. F. C. David preached at night to a large and appreciative congregation.

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1898.

Association convened pursuant to adjournment.

Prayer by Elder W. H. Pettus.

Minutes of yesterday's proceedings read and adopted.

The Moderator announced as committee on finance, W. T. Jones, C. T. McCormack, J. V. Linard.

Letter from Mt. Zion church was read and delegates present, Elders J. W. Hilliard, W. H. Pettus, D. K. Wall, Lam Durham, G. A. Johnson, H. J. Hobbs.

Report on Foreign Missions read by Dr. J. P. Hampton.

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Foreign Missions is one subject that has for more than one hundred years been discussed and urged upon all christians: but like the unbounded love of Christ, is not exhausted.

Christ says, "if you love me, keep my commandments." Again, "as my Father has sent me into the world, so send I you into the world"; and his last farewell command was, "go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." Such plain commands makes all other motives entirely unnecessary.

The providence of God is especially seen in Foreign Missions, in the opening of doors, the removal of obstructions and in the preparing of the fields and the men for the work, and the means he uses to advance his cause and kingdom and make it a success.

It affords your committee great pleasure to say to you that at the last meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention, there was a surplus in the treasury of the Home and Foreign Board of Missions. This, brethren and sisters, was as it should be every year in the future, "for the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof," and if this state of things were to continue, it would soon enable the mission boards to send more laborers in the field.

We have in the foreign fields about seventy-six (76) Missionaries, and eighty-three (83) helpers, and one-hundred and fifty-nine (159) at work, and they should have an abundant support. Why not double our energies and our contributions, and increase this number of noble workers?

Good and encouraging reports come up from our missionaries, and from many of them comes the earnest appeal for more helpers in the work. The ladies in China, especially, are doing a splendid work. Brethren, when you look into this matter and see the many millions that have never heard the sound of the Gospel, does it not make your hearts ache in compassion for them. Brethren and sisters we commend this work of sending missionaries to foreign fields to you and ask your prayers and contributions to aid in carrying on this work in obedience to the command of our saviour Christ.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. HAMPTON.

Home Missions read by Elder J. W. Sandlin.

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS.

The subject of Home Missions is one of the greatest subjects that will come before this Association.

Eternity can only tell the good that has been done by the Home Mission board, and the good work goes on.

From these Christian States of America, the world is watching and waiting to hear the glad tidings of salvation.

God has made it our duty to send the Gospel to all nations. Jesus said go into all the world and preach my Gospel to every creature.

We should rise up in solid ranks and wave the answer back to Heaven: By thy grace, we will.

As a State Board and as a Home Mission Board, we the Baptists of the United States are making great progress.

But, brethren, what we want and need is a better plan to carry on this great work of the Lord.

I think a good plan would be to do a better work in each church; a better work in each association; a better work in each State. Oh! let us see to it that our own Association has the Gospel preached to them. When this is done, like a mighty salvation army, will cross the mighty waters waving Christ's banner and the Lord God of hosts will be with us, for our Captain. Let us watch and fight, let us pray and pay, until we take the world for Jesus.

Fraternally submitted,

J. W. HILLIARD,

W. H. LOONEY,

J. T. CLIFT,

Committee.

State Missions read by Elder J. W. Sandlin.

REPORT ON STATE MISSIONS.

Your committee on State Missions beg leave to make the following report:

State Missions are the foundation of Home and Foreign Missions—through the untiring energies of the employees of the various State Boards the very gratifying reports of the Home and Foreign Boards at the last Southern Baptist Convention, were made possible. However, while assisting in bringing about these glorious results, our own State has been plunged headlong into debt. Therefore we recommend that each of the churches in this Association make a liberal contribution for this work, between this time and the 1st. of November, and forward the same to W. C. Bledsoe, Montgomery Ala., so that our Board may go to the convention free from debt.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. SANDLIN, Chairman.

Associational Missions read by Elder H. E. Rice.

REPORT ON ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS.

We your committee on Associational Missions report as follows: Having been with Brother Sandlin, the State Evangelist, to almost all the destitute places in this Association, we find Churches that need to be encouraged, others that need help, and other places where there is no Baptist preaching. Now we suggest that this Association make an effort to raise means, and in addition to what the State Board is doing let the executive board employ a suitable man and send him to the destination for such time as they have means.

Respectfully submitted,

H. E. RICE,

W. J. BAUGHER,

Committee.

Upon motion to adopt the various reports, a lengthy and profitable discussion was had by Dr. J. P. Hampton, Elders J. W. Sandlin and W. W. Lee, pending which the hour for preaching having arrived, a song was sung, and by appointment Elder A. W. Briscoe took the stand and preached an excellent sermon, from the text found in the 84th Psalm, 10th and 11th verses. "I had rather be doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness."

At close of sermon, prayer was led by Dr. F. C. David.

By motion adjourned until 1:30 p.m. Benediction by Elder W. W. Lee.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Association met pursuant to adjournment

Prayer led by Elder W. P. Webster.

The subject of Missions was resumed and discussed by Brother R. E. Pettus, Elders H. E. Rice, C. Kincaid, W. T. Cobbs, A. W. Briscoe, F. C. David, J. W. Hilliard. At close of the discussion a collection in cash and pledges was taken as follows:

Report on Education read by Elder W. W. Lee.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

It is a matter of rejoicing among us that God has so abundantly blessed us in all our educational interests. A century ago the Baptists were poor with few educational institutions, but God has blessed their efforts until now they lead all other Protestant denominations in the United States.

In North Alabama, we have the North Alabama Baptist Collegiate Institute and Normal School at Danville, Ala., of which Dr. Joseph Shackelford is the president. Howard College is gaining new strength and life, the bonded debt is arranged for and the faculty assumes the responsibility of paying the interest. The college is the property of the Alabama Baptist State Convention. It was chartered in 1841. It has twice been destroyed by fire, but each time has been rebuilt stronger than before. Its location now bids fair to be of great advantage as Birmingham grows in importance. We should be more loyal to Howard. We cannot afford to neglect it. The past year there were thirty-two ministerial students in the college, all of whom received tuition free. For further information write President F. M. Roof, East Lake, Ala.

Judson Female Institute is the pride of our State. It is the best Female Institute south of Virginia, and ranks with the best Virginia colleges and is so acknowledged North and South. Wherever you go people know of the Judson. It is out of debt and is one of the best equipped institutions in the South. It refuses to cut rates to secure patronage because it gives value received for all it asks. Our people are fast learning that they get a cheap grade of education when they send to a cheap school.

The Judson has always been well patronized and the next session seems likely to be better than any in the past. This Association has been the loser by not patronizing the Judson more.

The greatest of all our institutions of learning is the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, at Louisville, Ky. Last session there were three hundred and two students matriculated, of whom sixteen were from Alabama. This is the largest institution of its kind in the world. It stands as a bulwark for orthodoxy. The Baptists North as well as South love it for its orthodoxy and devout spirituality.

The great controversy is now settled and all things seem to point to a glorious future. There has been much written and said about the fact that last year in the bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention the Baptist baptized 98,000 upon a profession of faith, while our Methodist brethren who for a century have been keeping pace with us and are still next to us in soul-winning, baptized only 13,000, infants and all. I mention this to show that our educational institutions and an educated ministry are telling fast in the work of soul-winning.

No money has ever been more wisely and profitably expended, than for ministerial education. This in our State is now under direction of the Board of Ministerial Education of which W.A. Hobson, of East Lake, is president. There is no excuse now for any young preacher not going to school on account of poverty. Any one who will may now obtain an education to preach the Gospel.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. LEE,

G. W. TAYLOR,

Committee.

NOTE—As the report on Danville School was not at hand the Clerk deems it in place to here insert the same.

REPORT OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF DANVILLE SCHOOL.

The Board of Trustees of the Danville School, offer this their Sixth Report to the Liberty Association :

The school closed its fifth session in May last with a total enrollment of 118 students. The prospect was very encouraging at the commencement of the session, but unfortunately the close of the session marked a decided falling off in attendance. Prof. Kilpatrick withdrew and the trustees elected Dr. Jos. Shackelford the former President as principal with the privilege of selecting his own assistants.

He is an old and experienced teacher and fully competent to teach all the branches taught in the school, assisted by his daughter, Miss Emma. Miss Susie will continue to have charge of the music. The school has opened with an enrollment of 40. We hope soon to increase this number very materially.

The rates of tuition have been reduced and board is quite low. We need the support of Baptists. We most earnestly ask every minister in the Liberty Association to aid us by sending pupils to the school. The President of the school offers one scholarship to the Liberty Association. The Executive Board of the Association will select the man or young lady who may wish to attend. This scholarship gives free tuition in the literary department for one session of 9 months. We wish to improve our building and we ask the Baptists of Liberty Association to help us. The terms of the following trustees expire at this session of your body, viz: Dr J. P. Hampton and T. N. Wall. Their places will have to be filled by their re-appointment, or the appointment of others.

Respectfully submitted,

JOS. SHACKELFORD, President.

T. L. BAKER, Secretary.

Elders W. W. Lee, J. W. Sandlin and A. W. Briscoe made able speeches on the importance of education, especially on an educated ministry. Elder A. W. Briscoe very forcibly presented the claims of the Danville School on the Baptists of North Alabama. Brother Briscoe represented at all times the interest of the Alabama Baptist, our denominational paper.

Brother R. H. Taylor offered Brother W. P. Webster a free scholarship at Danville.

Brother R. E. Pettus spoke on behalf of the Judson. At close of the discussion the reports were adopted.

A collection was taken for Danville school building which amounted to $6.50.

Report on Intemperance, read by J. V. Linard.

REPORT ON INTEMPERANCE.

Brethren of the Liberty Association:

Just one year ago I was appointed with two other brethren upon the committee to write on Intemperance, this terrible monster, the greatest agency employed by Satan to drag the souls of the inhabitants of earth down to perdition. The church has been fighting this, the greatest of all curses, as far back as memory goes, but it has only been a battle of words with nothing to back up its sincerity in the way of determination to eradicate the evil. What would be the result if every Christian would band themselves together to blot out the whiskey traffic, by voting for no man or party that would not use their influence to kill the license law. We have got to come to this before we will ever be noticed or feared by whiskey dealers. Just so long as we depend upon condemnation and abuse only, just so long will the whiskey seller point the finger of scorn and contempt and the devil laugh in derision at our weakness and folly.

I claim that no one has any right to the appellation of christians who will not vote for Christ in preference to voting for his opposite, the devil, and I also claim that no man's name should be allowed to remain on the church book of a Christian organization that will not give up party affiliations, which is worldly, and cast his vote to destroy the power of Satan, and build up the cause of Christ. If he will serve Mammon his name should not desecrate the pages whereon is inscribed the names of true Christians. To some this remedy may seem radical, but remember we are dealing with the most radical curse of the world, and it will require radical measures to check its onward march. Then let us, the Baptists of Liberty Association, take the lead in an effort to build up a temperance army and invite every Christian of every denomination to join us, turn our backs upon all parties, place a temperance ticket in the field from President to Magistrate and by the help of God and united effort victory will be ours. And when our duty is done and the course of life is run, the last hour of our probation ended, we can look back on our efforts to stay the tide of crime, and the drunkard from eternal destruction with high and holy satisfaction.

Angels will whisper in our ears of men redeemed from vice and crime and by our hands plucked as brands from the eternal burnings.

This is a work of prevention and cure,
 A work for the rich and the poor,
 A work that's slow, and yet sure,
 A work whose effects will endure,
 Then shout for it hearer and preacher,
 Shout for it master and man,
 Shout for it scholar and teacher,
 Praise it wherever you can.

J. V. LINARD.

Good speeches were made by Brother J. V. Linard, Elders W. W. Lee, J. W. Sandlin, C. Kincaid.

Pending the discussion the hour for preaching having arrived Elder J. A. Eaves took the stand, and preached from the text "Marvel not that I said unto you, ye must be born again," John 3rd chapter and 7th verse.

At close of sermon prayer was offered by Elder W. W. Lee,
On motion adjourned for one hour.

Report on Religious Literature read by Elder W. H. Pettus.

RELIGIOUS LITERATURE.

Religious literature is cheap, good and plentiful. But it is distressing to see how little interest our people take in it. Our reports show very few religious papers taken. Many who claim to be unable to take a religious paper, take from one to three secular papers. This is both the cause and effect of our spiritual coldness and carelessness toward all our religious matters. Whenever our papers are read there is loyalty, liberty and growth. There is no reason why any one should not have a religious paper. We recommend the Alabama Baptist, Our Home Field and The Foreign Mission Journal, and all our Baptist papers throughout the South. We would further urge the pastors to lay greater stress upon this important subject, and earnestly labor to secure subscribers to good Baptist papers and especially those recommended in this report.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. PETTUS,
T. E. THORNE.

Report on Orphans Home read by Elder J. W. Sandlin.

OUR ORPHANAGE

Was temporarily located at Evergreen, January 16, 1893. The first inmates were received into it March 3, 1893.

The present Financial Secretary was asked to take the local management of it without salary, he being then pastor at Evergreen. By November of that year we had received 22 children, and the Trustees decided to locate it permanently. After duly advertising in the Alabama Baptist for bids for a location, Evergreen was chosen and property purchased consisting of 80 acres of land, 30 acres of which is in farm, 30 in pasture and 20 in woods. The purchase price was $5000, which with interest on deferred payments amounted to $5400.33. This debt was promptly paid. The buildings were a ten room brick house and three tenant houses.

Important and much needed improvements have just been added, giving us another brick building with eleven rooms, adequate water works and a complete system of sanitation. These improvements cost about $3500 and are all paid for except about $400. We owe also about $400 on our rent expense account.

Since the Home was started there have gathered into it 43 boys and 51 girls, and out of it have gone by apprenticeship 2 boys, returned to their people 7 boys and 7 girls, by adoption 11 boys and 11 girls; one boy has died and two boys have been irregularly discharged, leaving in the Home 20 boys and 33 girls.

These children came from twenty-one counties, as follows:

Autauga.....	2	Escambia.....	11	Montgomery.....	4
Barbour.....	3	Jefferson.....	12	Pike.....	2
Bibb.....	2	Lee.....	6	Russell.....	1
Butler.....	3	Limestone.....	1	Talladega.....	8
Chambers.....	1	Marengo.....	4	Tallapoosa.....	2
Conecuh.....	2	Monroe.....	4	Tuscaloosa.....	11
Covington.....	8	Morgan.....	3	Walker.....	6

We desire to dedicate the Home Oct. 20th, free from debt. We trust all friends will aid us in paying these balances so this can be done.

JOHN W. STEWART,
Financial Secretary.

The subject was spoken to by Elder J. W. Sandlin, and Brother R. E. Pettus. At the close of which a collection was taken for the Orphans Home amounting to $10.25.

The report was adopted.

Committee on Woman's Work read by R. E. Pettus.

REPORT ON WOMAN'S WORK.

Among the many noble spirits who are sacrificing their time, their talents, and even their lives in the elevation and salvation of mankind throughout the Christian world, there are no names that shine out with more resplendence, than those of our Christian women, who are banded together in our different churches. Man in these civilized and Christian times, now recognizes woman as his helpmeet, as his equal and certain duties are assigned her for which she is pre-eminently qualified to perform. The highest encomiums were pronounced upon woman and her works by the Saviour while here upon earth. Of the poor widow he said, "She hath cast in more than they all," that "She of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had," and Mary who had so lovingly anointed him for his burial he said, "Verily I say unto you wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, then shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her."

In Christian work woman has always had a conspicuous place, and since the cry comes up from everywhere from the male members of the church, that pressure of business prevents them from doing their Christian duty, it is a Godsend that the women are awaking to the demands of the times.

Women in their Missionary Societies, in their Aid Societies and in the W. C. T. U., are doing a grand and noble work, that is as far-reaching as it is invaluable. Many of our dead churches who pay nothing to the support of their pastors, nor to the cause of missions would find that if they would organize their most consecrated women into these societies that they would be surprised at the vitality infused into them. Note, if you please, the churches of this Association that have their women banded together to do Christian work, how they are alleviating the distressed, and ministering to the needy and are sending the gospel to the heathens, and then say you whether or not it pays. My brethren and sisters, lift up your eyes, and you may see another stadium of history advancing. Its aim will be to realize the Christianity of Christ himself, which is about to renew its youth by taking to heart the Sermon on the Mount. He that sitteth on the Throne is saying: "Behold, I make all things new. This earth is yet to be redeemed, soul and body, with all its people's occupation and interests." We now stand upon a pinnacle of duty and opportunity, which if realized and the proper efforts are put forward we will see that,

"Out of the shadow of night,
The world moves into the light,
It is daybreak everywhere."

Note, if you please, the rapid progress that this feature of the churches' work has made since its recent organization.

In 1861 there was but one Woman's Missionary Society in the United States, but now there are over thirty, sustaining 1,219 missionaries, of whom ninety-seven are physicians and an income last year of $1,331,952. Of the four leading societies—Presbyterian, Methodist, Congregational and Baptist—the total of receipts since their organization is $15,998,649.

Now sister, have you not made up your mind that you will join this holy band and "be doers of the word, and not hearers only?" May God help and bless you.

Respectfully,

R. E. PETTUS.

Report on Young Peoples' Work read by Elder W. H. Pettus.

YOUNG PEOPLES' WORK.

We are very sorry to report that to most of our churches the young peoples work is a thing just heard of.

We also note with sorrow that among some of our people there is a prejudice against the work.

Brethren, these things ought not to be for it's a fact that where our B. Y. P. U. has been kept up it has done as much to enlighten our young people as most anything you can refer to. And how can we expect them to take much interest who are but poorly informed. Therefore we most earnestly ask our people to lend a helping hand to this most benevolent work.

Respectfully submitted.

K. O. WALL,
Committee.

An able speech was made on the subject by Elder J. W. Sandlin and the report was adopted.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD.

Brother R. E. Pettus stated that the Board had had no meeting, consequently there was nothing to report, and that the Finance Committee had audited his book.

Resolution by R. E. Pettus:

MEMORIAL.

WHEREAS, God in his wisdom has called home our sainted brother, Deacon Joseph Atkins, of Mt. Zion Church, after he had finished his life-time work, therefore,

Resolved, That we as an Association desire to put on record an expression of our appreciation of this grand old man's good work. He was an earnest, eager Baptist from principle, and the thought of his life was to benefit his fellows. For thirty-five years he was the Sunday School Superintendent of the same school and Deacon in Mt. Zion Church 46 years. He was also for a number of years a member of the Executive Board of this Association. May God bless his host of grandchildren and great grandchildren who yet survive.

Adopted and ordered spread upon the minutes.

SYNOPSIS OF CHURCH LETTERS.

We your committee on Synopsis of Church Letters, submit the following:

'Tis with much pleasure that we note that some of our churches who for several years failed to be represented, have reported this year by letter and delegates full of the missionary spirit, and ask to be represented in our body.

We are also gratified to note the petitionary letter and acceptance of the same of Mt. Hope church. One of our churches (Oakley) has disbanded and joined other bodies, and several others are not represented at this meeting. The present membership is greatly increased since the last meeting. The spiritual condition has been greatly elevated, especially of the churches who have regular prayer meeting. We insist that the only way to keep up the spiritual interest of the church is to continue faithful in the work of the prayer meeting and Sabbath School. We also note that several churches invite the Association to meet with them next year. We especially note the earnest and continued call of the Church at Piney Grove, and as the unfortunate widow received her request at the hands of an angust judge, who neither feared God nor regarded man, but granted it because by her continual coming she might worry him, we feel that the church at Piney Grove ought to take courage when they remember this and that the promise is to the faithful.

Respectfully submitted,

The congregation then arose and sung a song at close of which the report on Sabbath Schools was read by R. E. Pettus.

REPORT ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

In this enlightened day of Christian work and organization it is needless to argue the benefits derived from a well conducted Sabbath School. Sabbath teaching was indulged in and recommended by the Savior as is evidenced by the fourth chapter of Luke, the thirteenth chapter of Acts.

To those who are actively engaged in this glorious work it is sad and disheartning to them to see the utter indifference manifested on the part of those who claim to know the Lord. To be convinced of the existing facts read some of the letters sent up by the churches to this Association. For instance, one church has a membership of 392 and an enrollment of less than an hundred in its Sunday School, another has a membership of 240 with an average of 67 on Sabbath School roll, others with memberships with from 60 to 100 who have from 25 to 40 on their Sunday School rolls, and still others who report no Sunday Schools. Brethren what is the trouble? Do those who do not attend the Sunday School oppose this department of church work? We think not. It is reasonable to expect each church member to attend Sabbath School and work to induce others to enlist. If such a happy time should come we would easily have in the Sabbath Schools of this Association tenfold more pupils. We long to see the time come when we shall learn and realize that the Sunday School is not only to instruct children in the ways of the Lord, but every living man and woman. There is really now no excuse for any to be without the pales of the Sabbath School. The invalid at home, the tired mother at home and all who are hindered from going to the house of God to study his word, now can be furnished literature by the Home Department. They only pledge themselves to study the lesson at least a half hour each week, "so that they are without excuse, because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.”—(Rom. 1-21.) My brethren “Be not deceived, God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.”—(Gal. 6-7.) The Master has no place in his vineyard for idlers if he had had no need for them he would not have “set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers,”—(1 Cor. 12-28.) It appears thus that a variety of gifts are bestowed by the Lord, upon the members of his church, and that teaching is one of these gifts. God hath appointed some to be teachers. Apostles, evangelists and pastors are also teachers, that is, the gift of teaching is associated with their offices, but separate and apart from these, there was also in the early church a recognized body of “Teachers,” and this body of teachers remain in the church to this day. Brethren, teaching is your work, that is pre-eminently the work of the Sabbath school. Other offices and other duties in the Sabbath School are subsiding to this. Let me urge you to magnify your office. It is of God, not of men. What are we to teach, you say? Let’s ask the Savior himself this question. In his last commission to his disciples, he says: “Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe ALL THINGS, WHATSOEVER I HAVE COMMANDED YOU.”

Your work then in simple terms, is to teach others about Christ. It all centres in him. The teacher of Jesus Christ is standing between God and man, between immortal life and the immortal soul. He is the medium of communication, and the channel of connection between the two. When you are before your class, you are there to represent Christ to them, to teach them the beauty of his character, the completeness of His sacrifice, His love, His grace and His saving power. The task is serious, the issues involved are tremendous, and nothing amazes me more than the lightness of heart, and the frivolous manners with which some teachers go about their work.

Mr. Wm. D. Keiley, of Pennsylvania, after prospecting in the South said: “The states south of the Ohio and east of the Mississippi, with the half million square miles of area, contain a wealth great enough for a continent, a wealth so vast, so varied in its elements — and character, so advantageously placed for development, that these states alone can sustain a population far greater than the population of the United States today.” And I have no doubt in my mind the truthfulness of this statement. The influx of population into this section within the next few years will be astounding. Then let us wake up and be ready to invite them into a Christian community, one that is filled with such strong convictions of truth and righteousness that as they come we shall be able to teach them of the riches in Christ Jesus our Lord. Our work is noble, our calling high, our reward life everlasting.

“Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for every fate,
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.”

Respectfully submitted,

R. E. PETTUS,
PERRY HENDERSON,
FRANK BUNNELL.

The subject was discussed at length by Bro. R. E. Pettus and Rev. F. M. Roberts, of the Methodist Church. At the close of these two fine speeches, the report was adopted.

It now being the hour for preaching, Eld. J. W. Sandlin took the stand and after singing, read as a lesson 4th chapter Epistle of John and followed by prayer. The text is contained in the 5th chapter of 2nd Corinthians, 14th and 15th verses.

At close of sermon a collection was taken up for missions which amounted to $7.67.

By request the door of the Church was opened and one member received into Mt. Pisgah Church by letter.

The Moderator then announced that business of this Association was through and we now stood adjourned to meet with Piney Grove Church on Thursday before the third Sunday in Sept. 1899.

Benediction by Eld. J. W. Sandlin.
